

House Resolution No.

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to recognize outstanding young Missouri citizens; and

Whereas, the Nevada High School Air Force Junior ROTC Flying Tigers are the only Missouri Drill Team slated to compete on March 21, 2003, during the 2003 Air Force National JROTC Drill Championship Meet; and

Whereas, held at Prince George's Sports and Learning Field House in Landover, Maryland, the Air Force National JROTC Drill Championship Meet is put together by Sports Network International; and

Whereas, this year the Air Force National JROTC Drill Championship Meet will consist of 130 top drill teams from across America competing for the title of "Nation's Best"; and

Whereas, to be eligible to compete, teams must have won a regional drill meet and be approved by their school districts to attend; and

Whereas, the Nevada High School Air Force Junior ROTC Flying Tigers won first overall at Webb City, Nevada, and Lee's Summit in the unarmed category; won first place overall in armed competition at Webb City and Nevada; and second overall at Lee's Summit; and

Whereas, the Nevada High School Air Force Junior ROTC Flying Tigers will proudly compete against teams from the Bronx, Brooklyn, Tampa Bay, Miami, Jacksonville, Tulsa, and other major cities from across the United States; and

Whereas, this is the first time in the thirty-year history of the Nevada High School Air Force Junior ROTC program that the Team has had this prestigious opportunity:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join the entire Nevada community in extending our most hearty congratulations to the Nevada High School Air Force Junior ROTC Flying Tigers for their tremendous success in earning eligibility to attend the Air Force National JROTC Drill Championship Meet; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Nevada High School Air Force Junior ROTC Flying Tigers.
